

Call for applications 2024
"2022-2026 Taiwan Studies Programme" agreement between Ghent University, Groningen University, Georg-August Universität Göttingen, the University of Tartu and the Department of International and Cross-Strait Education (DICE), MoE, Taiwan.

Dear partners and colleagues,

I hereby send you the 2024 extended Call for applications in the framework of the new Memorandum of Understanding "The 2022-2026 Academic Years Taiwan Studies Programme".

The goal of this extended Call for applications for YEAR 3 is to find a candidate (Taiwan Chair holder) for the first semester of the new academic year 2024-2025 in the University of Tartu (Estonia) + Winter School in February 2025.

The professorial fellowship offered by the programme in the framework of this Third Call for applications may be occupied by one or more persons in sequence, with a minimum of 4 months and a maximum of 8 months per stay per year.

With regard to research and teaching activities and subject to compliance with applicable university laws, the Professorial Fellow (academic scholar) shall be treated as a visiting scholar at the partner universities.

The parties agree that the Professorial Fellow's activities under and in connection with this MoU shall comply with the rules of good scientific practice under which the university partners to this MoU are operating.

DICE will provide the Professorial Fellow with a monthly allowance and a round-trip international airline ticket. Additionally, Ghent University/the University of Groningen/Georg-August Universität Göttingen and the University of Tartu, when acting as the respective hosting institution, will provide the Professorial Fellow with housing or an additional salary that can cover expenses including housing costs.

Furthermore, Ghent University/the University of Groningen/the Georg-August Universität Göttingen and the University of Tartu will provide the Professorial Fellow with all necessary facilities such as office space, a computer and secretarial support.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The entire duration of the professorial fellowship should be exercised during the academic year 2024-2025 (3rd year of the new Taiwan Studies Programme).

We would like to draw your special attention to the fact that the selected candidate for the 1st semester in the University of Tartu (Estonia) will have to organize a Winter School during her/his mobility period there. This Winter School will take place in January/February 2025.

Profile:

- PhD in Social Sciences, Political Sciences or History and Culture (preferably with focus on politics, international relations, law, economics, soft power or intellectual visions)
- Expertise with research on Taiwanese and East Asian studies
- Expertise with education on Taiwanese and East Asian studies

- Good command of English (spoken and written)
- Ability to teach on EU-East Asia relations at MA level; involvement in the MA course EU-East Asia relations
- Ability to organize research seminars for PhD students in areas such as EU external relations, international relations, Taiwanese/ East Asian studies

Candidates for the Professorial Fellowship shall be selected from any university or institution of higher learning in the Republic of China (Taiwan). The Professorial Fellow selected shall preferably be an/a (associate) professor on sabbatical leave from the Republic of China (Taiwan), and shall have minimal qualifications as a Ph.D. holder.

Duties:

- The Professorial Fellow will teach Taiwan Studies related classes on one or more aspects of international relations in an East Asian context. The term 'international relations' broadly encompasses the areas of: foreign policy; global and regional governance; international law; international political economy; IR theory; security studies; and global/transregional history.
- The Professorial Fellow shall submit a report to DICE and to the Faculty Boards of Ghent University/the University of Groningen/Georg-August Universität Göttingen and the University of Tartu regarding her or his academic work at the end of each appointment period.
The Ministry and Ghent University/the University of Groningen/Georg-August Universität Göttingen and the University of Tartu may publish the said report.
- Each Professorial Fellows will provide 1 news article along with photos of their Taiwan Studies related activities, such as lectures, workshops, courses, etc., to upload on the Taiwan Studies website per academic year.

Documents that should be submitted:

- Curriculum vitae
- Motivation letter
- Letter of consent and recommendation letter of your home institution signed by the relevant responsible person in your faculty/college/school.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS:

Deadline for applications for the University of Tartu (Estonia): Monday 17 June 2024– 12:00 CET.

Please send your applications to the following address: inge.mangelschots@ugent.be

The selection results will be announced by the end of June 2024 after the selection committee in the hosting university has been able to select a candidate.

I would be very grateful if you could disseminate this Extended Call for applications in your university.

Best regards,

Inge Mangelschots

Policy Adviser

Coordinator East Asia Platform

T +32 9 264 70 26

M inge.mangelschots@ugent.be

Directie Onderwijsaangelegenheden | Department of Educational Policy
Afdeling Internationalisering | International Relations Office

Korte Meer 9, B-9000 Ghent, Belgium

T secretariaat +32 9 264 70 02

www.ugent.be

www.facebook.com/ugent

www.twitter.com/ugent