

NCL Hold Taiwan Lectures on Chinese Studies in Mongolia

On September 9, NCL hold the fifth "Taiwan Lectures on Chinese Studies" at National Library of Mongolia, to accompany with the opening ceremony for the National Library of Mongolia's Taiwan Resource Center for Chinese Studies (TRCCS), and the exhibition entitled "A Look Back at the Mongolian Empire and the Imprint of Chinese Culture: In Remembrance of the 750th Year of the Development of the 'Phags-pa Script".

This Lecture invited Prof. Ming-sun Wang, chair of the department of history at Chinese Culture University delivered the speech: "Yuan Dynasty Mongolia's Rule and Control of China in the Yuan Dynasty." The lecture attracted more than fifty scholars from academia. The discussion during the lecture was very active.

Prof. Ming-sun Wang

Audiences of the lecture